

The diagram illustrates the structure of a cell with various organelles labeled. The nucleus is at the center, surrounded by the nucleolus. The cytoplasm contains the endoplasmic reticulum (rough and smooth), Golgi apparatus, lysosomes, and mitochondria. The cell membrane is the outer boundary, and the cell wall is present in plant cells. The diagram also shows the cell's internal structure, including the cytoskeleton and the cell's overall shape.

John F.

Paul Lewis

Aprobó: Nestor Fan Leon Jefe de la OFCI